

Inclusive Practice in Georgia (November 1 – June 30)

Civic Development Institute, with financial support of Opens Society Foundation Society Foundation, started implementation of new Project “Inclusive Practice in Georgia” from November 1, 2015.

The project objective is to elaborate report on effectiveness of Inclusive Education Policy and State Programs in rural and minority populated regions according to the Article 24 -Education(UN Enable –Development and Human rights for all)

Education specialists, NGO representatives will take part in the report development process. The Report will be submitted to the Committee on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD).